

UOIT Continuing Ed Summer AQ Course 2016

OCT Additional Qualifications Course Teaching and Learning with E-Learning

Teaching and Learning with E-Learning, an University of Ontario Institute of Technology Ontario College of Teachers AQ course for teachers, is offered this Summer 2016 completely online. This is an opportunity for you to explore online education at the senior/intermediate level (4-12), share thoughts, ideas and questions within a collaborative community of your peers, and model techniques that you will use as you develop your own online learning modules for hybrid or fully online courses.

For registration information contact: Lesley Monette, directorelcc.com Register on-line at www.education.uoit.ca and follow the AQ links. Registration is available May 2016.

When: July 4-29 125 hours

Where: Completely Online

Cost: $600 .00 plus $75 Registration Fee

Instructor: Lesley Monette: eLearning Consortium Canada Director of eLearning

Requirements:

A computer, high-speed Internet, speakers and microphone or headset, webcam, and Microsoft Office or comparable software. This course includes a number of synchronous (live) online sessions, and a final synchronous online culminating session July 29th.

UOIT AQ Course Outline

Unit 1: Theories, Policies and Standards in Online Instruction and Course Design Introduction

Unit 2: Tools for E-learning

Unit 3: Course Design and Content

Unit 4: The Future of E-Learning and the Net Generation